

COC in Sapporo (JPN):
Slovenian Jure Sinkovec wins second competition

12.01.2008/hn

Jure Sinkovec (SLO) won today the second of three COC competitions on the HS 134 Miyanomori-Okurayama hill in Sapporo (JPN). Sinkovec received 257.9 points for jumps up to 139 and 119 meters. Austrian Stefan Thurnbichler finished second (253.6 points / 133.5 and 121 meters) ahead of local Yukio Sakano (241.3 points / 127 and 121.5 meters)

Statements

Jure Sinkovec (SLO) :

It was the first win for Sinkovec in the COC: "Now I know how it feels to be a winner".

Stefan Thurnbichler (AUT) :

Some good jumps here for me finally. I was waiting for that.

Bastian Kaltenboeck (AUT) :

Today's result confirms my rising form.

Today's second Stefan Thurnbichler (401 points) now took the third place in the COC overall ranking ahead of Norwegian Andreas Vilberg. Jakub Janda (CZE) is still in the overall lead (435 points) ahead of Roland Müller (AUT, 421 points).

Next COC Competition will be held in Sapporo (JPN) tomorrow, 13.01.2008.
